me: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=B6i5eBpYWcs Clark: i just saw your tweet of it, and going to get my head phones (laptop has shitty speakers) Clark: was drinking irish creme (holidays, time of drinking candy shit, you know) and got some in my nose laughing--make sure Rob Green sees this, he might find you comic gig me: I still have to do that film treatment for him me: gonna go to the bar, write some notes, consider the bizarre life I have managed to lead, and hopefully have that proposal to you for your look-see tomorrow me: you know, Erik never said "thank you" for the write-up you did on new blog possibilities me: guy has a problem with priorities Clark: I think getting the book in print is probably our Priority #1, so yeah what ever it takes me: absolutely Clark: I never did go thru the book itself looking for passages to consider for the proposal, but i figure you know whats in there better than I ,anyhow me: the delay actually works for me insomuch as that I have so much more to add to marketing section me: the book is already going to be referenced in Eisler's next book, even before being published Clark: if the agent wants some things changed in the book, keep an open mind me: well, I have to change the McCain chapter and other parts in light of what I now know about Johnson me: gotta figure that out Clark: excellent t-shirt--is there an LGF logo on it? me: nah, it says "Mountain Dew" me: wait, no me: it says New York City in Mountain Dew esque logo me: got it in Chinatown Clark: anyhow, it was the correct shade of green me: yeah, was coincidence - but will be analyzed me: okay, off to the bar, laterz Clark: ok, thanks for the link Clark: jingle jingle me: if you go to that Diary of Daedalus blog that hates Johnson and used to hate me me: and look at last couple threads me: you'll see how easy it is to tame opponents me: people who continue to criticize me there are now shouted down, hilariously enough Clark: the comments on the VW engine are pretty funny me: yeah, there's a good crowd there aside from the couple of nuts who really, really hate me Clark: somewhat of a relief from the somewhat tedious seriousness of the commenters at League Clark: Community College faculty set the tone there --- nothing wrong with CCF's, was once one myself briefly, but awfully solemn about their issues
